

Invitation to October 25, Luncheon Seminar

Now more than ever before

Promoting Intellectual Exchanges
Between the U.S. and Japan

Speakers: Mr. L. Gordon Flake & Dr. Kent Calder

One integral part of the Cherry Blossom Centennial Project will be "Promotion of Intellectual Exchanges between the U.S. and Japan". The project will explore opportunities to enhance U.S.-Japan relations through advocacy by young U.S.-Japan experts in government and academia.

Mr. L. Gordon Flake, Executive Director of The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation and Dr. Kent Calder, Director of Japan Studies & Edwin O. Reischauer Center for East Asian Studies, will introduce the project and the methodology in which it will strive to establish policies to foster mutually beneficial relations for the U.S. and Japan.

Mr. L. Gordon Flake: L. Gordon Flake joined the Mansfield Foundation in February 1999. He was previously a Senior Fellow and Associate Director of the Program on Conflict Resolution at The Atlantic Council of the United States and prior to that Director for Research and Academic Affairs at the Korea Economic Institute of America. He has authored numerous book chapters on policy issues in Asia and is a regular contributor to the U.S. and Asian press.

Dr. Kent Calder: Director of the Edwin O. Reischauer Center for East Asia Studies, SAIS and the Japan Studies Program; former professor for 20 years at Princeton University; Japan Chair at the Center for Strategic and International Studies; former lecturer, Department of Government, Harvard University; served as the first Executive Director, Harvard University Program on U.S.-Japan Relations; former Special Advisor to the U.S. Ambassador to Japan; former Special Advisor to the Assistant Secretary of State for East Asia and Pacific Affairs, including Korea.
